Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The mission of Students Today Leaders Forever (STLF) is to reveal leadership through service, relationships, and action. STLF is a group of optimistic students who engage in servant leadership to create positive life experiences. Students are taking part in high-impact programs and returning home with a lasting commitment to action in their lives and in their communities.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 512,208 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 522,450)

Pay It Forward Tour: Core program engages students in leadership through service, relationships, and action. The Pay It Forward Tour is a leadership program that combines components of service, education, travel, teambuilding, leadership, and reflection on a cross-country Tour to serve communities. The Tour is offered as a nine-day program serving six communities for college students, as a five-day program serving four communities for high school students, and as a three-day program serving three communities for middle school students. Each Tour is led by thoroughly trained college student volunteer leaders and consists of 30-40 student participants. During this fiscal year, 82 Pay it Forward Tours took place - serving over 350 communities. There were 3,154 participants who were a part of Pay It Forward Tours.

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 8,670 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 775)

Campus and Community Events: In addition to the Pay It Forward Tour program, chapters of STLF engage in various service and community events locally and on campuses throughout the year. These programs range in size, purpose and scope, and exists to engage students in leadership experience and to fulfill a specific need on a campus or in a community. Some examples of these programs include but are not limited to campus-wide clothing drives, 5K runs for a designated cause, dance marathons, a month or week of kindness, local volunteer projects, and more.

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 5,942 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 940)

Leadership Trainings: Thorough and frequent leadership development and training experiences ensure that STLF's volunteer college student leaders are well-trained and well-prepared to fulfill the roles and responsibilities of their program leadership. All STLF programs are organized and facilitated by experienced volunteer college student leaders. In order to ensure for consistency and sustainability, STLF organizes numerous experiences throughout the year: two one-day conferences, two multi-day retreats, and frequent focused trainings for over 400 students.

4d Other program services. (Describe in Schedule O.)

The form 990 is presented to the Executive Committee of the Board (Chair, Vice-Chair, Treasurer, Secretary) prior to filing. It is also presented to the Finance Committee of the Board. The Treasurer is responsible to relay any information to the other members of the Board.

In addition, prior to the annual report filing with the State of Minnesota Attorney General's Office, the form 990 is once again presented to the Board for approval.

Part VI -- Section B. Policies -- 12c

Students Today Leaders Forever's Conflict of Interest Policy in while describes the process in detail of monitoring and enforcing compliance with the policy. Below are some key points to summarize this process:

1. Duty to Disclose: In connection with any actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the board members and members of committees with board delegated powers considering the proposed transactions or arrangement.

2. Determining Whether a Conflict Exists: After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

3. Violations of the Conflict of Interest Policy:

a. If the governing board or committee has reasonable cause to believe a member has failed to disclose actual or possible conflicts of interest, it shall inform the member of the basis for such belief and afford the member an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.

b. If, after hearing the member's response and after making further investigation as warranted by the circumstances, the governing board or committee determines the member has failed to disclose an actual or possible conflict of interest, it shall take appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.

At the STLF National Office, the process for determining the salary of the three Co-Executive Directors of Students Today Leaders Forever is an annual process that is carried out by the organization's Board of Directors. This process is carried out from June - August each year and with the final decision approved by the board along with the budget in the August meeting. This process is carried out through a collaboration of the Development Committee, HR Committee, and Finance Committee of the Board. These steps takes place as follows:

1. HR Committee begins process of determining market salaries for positions. Since STLF's Co-Executive Director model is rather unique in the sector, the committee refers to local employee compensation studies carried out by the Minnesota Council of Nonprofits for this information. Data for positions equivalent to the sub-responsibilities of these positions is used instead of data for Executive Director positions, as well as data of the average of the top three paid positions in organizations of similar size.
2. Development Committee sets fundraising goals for the year. STLF develops its budgets based on the conservative fundraising goals set by the Development Committee. These goals are set by the Committee with the Co-Executive Directors, then passed along to the Finance Committee for budgeting purposes.
3. The Co-Executive Director in charge of Finance and Operations and Manager of Finance and Operations draft and propose the organizational budget. The budget is built on a model of drivers and assumptions. The Finance Committee and all Co-Executive Directors review and offer input and modifications to the budget while in its draft stage.
4. Finance Committee and HR Committee confer to agree upon a salary amount for Co-Executive Directors. This amount is to be no greater than the market salary determined by the HR Committee, and affordable in the budget of the Finance Committee. This amount is included in the final budget sent to the Board for approval.
5. Full Board of Directors approves the salary and the budget during the August meeting of each year. Other staff salaries are determined by Co-Executive Directors, and approved by the full board along with the approval of the budget.

Part VI -- Section C. Disclosure -- 19

All governing documents, conflict of interest policy, and other policies are made available to the public upon request. Financial statements are made available to the public by request and are publicly posted on our website (www.stlf.net). Furthermore, STLF undergoes an annual review process through the Charities Review Council during which all required policies are reviewed and ensuring that all best practices are being met. STLF has met all standards of accountability during each year of review, and some information regarding policies and financial statements is made available on their website (www.smartgivers.org).
